“general meeting” means a members’ meeting convened under Clause 15.1.

“individual member” is an individual who is eligible to be afforded all the privileges of membership of the Samaj subject to the provisions of the Constitution.

“corporate member” is a corporation or any incorporated association.

“officer” means an officer or any officers referred to in Clause 9.2.

“Samaj” means The Gujarati Samaj of Western Australia (inc.) “special resolution” means a resolution passed at a general meeting by not less than three-fourths of those present and entitled to vote under the Constitution.

4) AIMS AND OBJECTS

- 4.1) The aims of the Samaj shall be to cultivate an understanding and an appreciation of Gujarati culture, language and society amongst all Australians, and in this regard to:
- a) assist, encourage, participate in, and undertake those activities which promote the welfare, social, cultural and educational interests of its members;
 - b) conserve, promote and advance generally the cultural, social, educational, linguistic and religious aspirations of its members; and
 - c) provide a link between the members of the Samaj and other associations within Australia and throughout the world which share similar aims and objects so that information on matters of common interest may be exchanged and the aims and objects of the Samaj promoted.

5) POWERS

- 5.1) The Samaj shall not ever acquire or construct temples, mosques, churches or any other buildings of religion of any denomination.
- 5.2) However, without limiting the generality of the Samaj's aims and objects, the Samaj may consistently with its aims and objects:
- a) Encourage and involve the members' children to participate in and promote the aims and objects of the Samaj;
 - b) Raise by all lawful means and provide money to enable the Samaj to carry out its aims and objects;
 - c) Subject to Clause 5.1, acquire or lease any real or personal property and any rights or privileges and thereafter improve, manage, develop, sell, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property which it shall think necessary or expedient for the purpose of attaining its objectives;
 - d) Print, publish, sell or gratuitously distribute any newspapers, periodicals, books or leaflets that may deem desirable for the promotion of its aims and objects;
 - e) Consider and make representations on bills, legislation or other measures or by laws affecting the interests of members of the Samaj; and
 - f) Do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the Samaj's aims and objects.

6) POLITICAL AND RELIGIOUS AFFILIATIONS

The Samaj shall be non-sectarian and shall not be affiliated with any political party in Australia or elsewhere.

7) MEMBERSHIP

7.1) The Samaj's membership shall consist of the following categories:

- (a) individual member
- (b) family member
- (c) associate member and a reference to a member in this constitution shall mean a reference to any one of the above categories of members.

7.2) Any person who or any family which agrees to work towards the attainment of the aims and objects of the Samaj shall be eligible for membership of the Samaj.

7.3) Any person or family desiring to become a member of the Samaj shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another member and shall submit an application form in the form prescribed by the Committee from time to time accompanied by the annual subscription. Unless otherwise amended modified or substituted the application shall be in accordance with form number 1 attached to this Constitution.

a) The Committee shall consider each application received under Clause 7.3 as soon as possible at a Committee meeting and shall at that Committee meeting accept or reject those applications.

7.4) The annual subscription shall be payable in advance on the first day of each financial year and shall be such sum as may from time to time be determined by the members at a general meeting.

a) The Secretary shall before the commencement of each financial year send to each member a reminder of the annual subscription fees payable for the financial year.

b) Any person or family elected to membership during the currency of any financial year shall pay the full subscription for that year.

7.5) A member whose subscription is not paid by the 120th day of the financial year shall cease to be a member of the Samaj and shall not be entitled to enjoy any of the privileges of the Samaj as long as his/her/its subscription remain in arrears. The Committee may at any time thereafter in their absolute discretion re-admit such person or family to membership upon that person or family submitting a written application and making payment of all arrears of subscriptions and any other amounts then due.

7.6) The Secretary shall on behalf of the Samaj keep and maintain a register of members in accordance with section 27 of the Act and shall enter the full name, address and date of admission of each member, and the date at which any person or family ceases to be a member.

a) The register shall be available for inspection by members at the registered office of the Samaj.

7.7) A member of the Samaj who has paid all moneys due and payable by him, her or it to the Samaj may resign from the Samaj by first giving notice to the Secretary of his, her or its intention to resign and upon the expiration of that period of notice the member shall cease to be a member.

a) Upon the expiration of a notice given under Clause 7.7, the Secretary shall make an entry in the Register of Members recording the date on which that member ceased to be member.

7.8) The membership of a member shall cease;

(a) On death

(b) On non-payment of the annual subscription by the due date as stipulated in Clause 7.5

(c) Upon expulsion as outlined in Clause 8.1 below.

8) EXPULSION OF MEMBERS OR WITHDRAWAL OF PRIVILEGES

8.1) If any member infringes or neglects to comply with the provisions of the Constitution or whose conduct in the opinion of the Committee is detrimental to or inconsistent with the aims and objects of the Samaj then the member may be expelled from the Samaj. Before any such action is taken against such member, the Committee must give written notice of its intention to expel the member setting out the grounds on which the Committee intends to expel the member. Thereafter, the member shall be entitled to defend such action by way of a hearing at a Committee meeting.

8.2) No refund of any subscriptions paid to the Samaj shall be claimed or allowed on expulsion from the Samaj.

8.3) The expulsion of a member shall take effect from the date of the resolution of expulsion by the Committee.

8.4) Any application for membership from a previous member who has been expelled shall be referred to the next Annual General Meeting for determination of readmission on the basis of a simple majority.

8.5) If any person being part of a family member infringes or neglects to comply with the provisions of the Constitution or whose conduct in the opinion of the Committee is detrimental to or inconsistent with the aims and objects of the Samaj then the privileges accorded by the family membership to that person may be withdrawn. Before any such action is taken against such person, the Committee must give written notice of its intention to withdraw the privileges afforded to that person, setting out the grounds on which the Committee intends to do so. Thereafter, the member shall be entitled to defend such action by way of a hearing at the Committee meeting.

8.6) The withdrawal of privileges shall take effect from the date of the resolution of such withdrawal by the Committee.

8.7) Any application for reinstatement of privileges by a person whose privileges have been withdrawn shall be referred to the next Annual General Meeting for determination on the basis of a simple majority.
